Bill Bay asked me to write a follow up book
to my last book, "The Bluegrass
Pickers Tune
Book (20233).

If you like Bluegrass music (232 songs) I'd recommend getting that book to add to your collection. the focus of this book, the Acoustic Source Book is on roots and old-time music. the book is focused on the time period from late 1800's until 1940's. There are a few songs from the Bluegrass Book that were too important to be left out. I decided not to use any patriotic and Christmas songs and came up with a list of about 400 songs which eventually was cut down to over 200. During the late 1800's and early 1900's there was an important evolution in American music; the birth of jazz, ragtime, and blues. This was also the period of the phonograph and early commercial recordings. Music from the Minstrel period as well as traditional songs were used as staple for the roots musicians. In the early 1900's there were rags, blues, gospel, Tin-Pan Alley, jug band, spiritual, old-time country and popular songs. I've tried to include some of the well-known songs from every genre to give you a big slice of Americana. There are some great songs that are popular roots, bluegrass and old-time songs today that have never been published. There are also

great songs that are not well known that should be played and enjoyed. Richard

being Mikey
Elsinger and Margalo Epps
in ninth grade.
It seems like things are changing. Now
some people want to sit at the same
lunch table
with them,
and some even ask them
for advice.
What are the two friends to make of this strange
behavior?
Frankly all the attention cuts
into the little time they have together
and distracts
attention from their own interests, like tennis and drama, and their own problems, like cheating in tennis and things not going the way Margalo plans they will in drama. In the opinion of these two bad girls, ninth grade can't end fast enough! But no matter how bad things get, one thing's for sure: They'll have each other. The final book in the acclaimed Bad Girls series, Bad Girls, Bad Girls, Whatcha

Gonna Do? is another funny, insightful, and realistic novel from Newbery Medal winner Cynthia Voigt. Ego Trip's Book of Rap Lists St. Martin's Griffin It all starts when Trey tells a fellow classmate that he will not help him cheat on his math test. Now Bobby is bullying Trey. Trey doesn't want to fight him, but feels lost about what to do. All of that is about to change when his friend, Jose, reminds him about a friendly police officer and his important message about bullies. Officer Griffin loves teaching boys and girls how to use their words, actions, and kindness to avoid fighting bullies. One day when Bobby is brought to the front of the classroom to work on a math problem he cannot solve, Trey comes to his rescue. But is it enough to change Bobby's mind about how he feels about Trey or will he continue to bully him? In this poignant tale, a police officer teaches children how to use their words and kind gestures to transform the actions of bullies.

There's something about a cowboy, right?
Exhibit A:
Gunner Wilson--Pistol Rock's resident gunslinger. He's broad-chested, inked, with a devilish swagger that could make a nun to recant. He moved back into my life quicker than a cold snap comes and goes in Texas. I should be concerned since Mr. Sexy Texas Ranger has put me in hot water more times than I can count. Yet we can't keep our hands off each other. Folks in town say he's bad news. I beg to differ. He's changed. They think I should give him the boot. Rid my life of more trouble. But what they don't know is--

I'm the one welcoming trouble into our small town. And sometimes a reformed bad boy is the only thing standing between a girl and some-not-so-very-good men.

Made for dipping into again and again,
Whatcha

Gonna Do with That Duck? brings together the very best of Seth Godin's acclaimed blog and is a classic for fans both old and new. Getting your ducks in a row is a fine thing to do. But deciding what you are going to do with that duck is a far more important issue' Seth Godin is famous for bestselling books such as Purple Cow and cool entrepreneurial ventures such as Squidoo and the Domino

Project. But to millions of loyal readers, he's best known for the daily burst of insight he provides every morning, rain or shine, via Seth's Blog. Since he started blogging in the early 1990s, he has written more than two million words and shaped the way we think about marketing, leadership, careers, innovation, creativity, and more. Much of his writing is inspirational and some is incendiary.

Collected here are six years of his best, most entertaining, and most poignant blog posts, plus a few bonus ebooks. From thoughts on how to treat your customers to telling stories and spreading ideas, Godin pushes us to think smarter, dream bigger, write better, and speak more honestly. Highlights include: -A marketing lesson from the Apocalypse - No, everything is not going to be okay - Organized bravery - Choose your customers, choose your future -Paying attention to the attention economy - Bandits and philanthropists Godin writes to get under our skin. He wants us to stand up and do something remarkable, outside the standards of the industrial system that raised us. Seth Godin is the author of thirteen international bestsellers that have changed the way people think about marketing, the ways ideas spread, leadership and change including Permission Marketing, Purple Cow, All Marketers are Liars, The Dip and Tribes. He is the CEO of Squidoo and a very popular lecturer. His blog is the most influential business blog in the world and consistently one of the 100 most popular blogs on any subject. 'He's been part of the Coldplay family since day one, we love him.' COLDPLAY 'A funny, honest, absorbing account from an unseen member of the World's biggest band.'

SIMON PEGG
Longtime Coldplay roadie Matt has taken almost every step with the band over a decade of world tours and 40 million (and counting) record sales. In this, his first book, he reveals what life is like behind the scenes at the pinnacle of rock 'n' roll touring. As Coldplay move from club gigs to arenas and stadiums worldwide, Matt goes with them; faking it as a band member on US chat shows, flirting with Kylie, saving a life on a French motorway and even pitching in with the odd guitar riff in the studio. Roadie provides the definitive glimpse of backstage life. Tales of hurricanes and heatwaves, helicopter chases and private jets, plectrum hunters and projectiles all come together as Matt explains in his unique way - and regardless of the mountain (and gear) to move - that the show must always, always go on.
