Sing Me a Song National Library Australia
THE TRANSFORMATION Beth has always been “The Beast”—that’s what everyone at school calls her because of her awkward height, facial scars, and thick glasses.

Beth's only
friend is geeky, golden-
haired Scott.
That is, until
she's selected
to be her
choir's
soprano
soloist, and
receives the
makeover that
will change
her life
forever. THE
LOVE AFFAIR
When Beth's
choir travels
to Switzerland,
she meets
Derek: pale,
brooding,
totally
dreamy.
Derek's
untethered
passion—for music, and for Beth—leaves
her

breathless.
Because in
Derek's eyes?
She's not The Beast, she's
The Beauty.
THE
IMPOSSIBLE
CHOICE When Beth comes
home, Scott,
her best friend
in the world,
makes a
confession
that leaves
her
completely torn. Should she stand by
sweet, steady
Scott or follow
dangerous,
intense new
feelings she has for Derek?
HEARTBREAK
The closer Beth gets to Derek, the

further away
he seems.
Then Beth
discovers that Derek's been hiding a dark
secret from her ...one that could shatter
everything.

Alongside
examples of

modern times,
Dowling Long

also bring attention to the Bible's
impact on
popular
culture with numerous
entries on
hymns,
spirituals,

musicals, film music, and contemporary popular music. Each entry contains essential information about the original context of the work (date, composer, etc.) and, where relevant, its afterlife in literature, film, politics, and liturgy. It includes an index of biblical references and an index of biblical names, as well as a detailed timeline that brings to the fore key events, works, and publications, placing them in their historical context. There is also a bibliography, a glossary of technical terms, and an index of artists, authors, and composers. The Bible in Music will fascinate anyone familiar with the Bible, but it is also designed to encourage choirs, musicians, musicologists, lecturers, teachers, and students of music and religious education to discover and perform some less well-known pieces, as well as helping them to listen to familiar music with a fresh awareness of what it is about. Sing Me a Song University of Illinois Press Composers in the Classroom is a bio-bibliographical dictionary, chronicling the careers and work of over 120 composers associated with conservatories, colleges, and universities in the United States and Puerto Rico. Scholars and students of music seeking critical information about composers who have taken on the mantle of instruction will find a wealth of detail on their subjects. Painstakingly obtained through direct correspondence with the composers themselves, Floyd includes within each entry a short biography of the composer's life and education, lists of previous positions, most prominent commissions, awards and honors, and notable performers of the subject's work. Each entry also contains a discography of the recordings and a bibliography of writings by the composer. Researchers will find especially useful the organization of each subject's compositions by a variety of types. These include vocal, choral/assemb ly, dramatic, keyboard, solo instrument, handbells, chamber music, jazz ensemble, band and wind ensemble, band and wind ensemble with solo instruments, orchestra, orchestra with solo instruments, film/television/commercial, electro-acoustic and multimedia, arrangements, transcriptions, and editions and reconstructions. Music scholars will find under each work not only the title and date of composition but also the date of revision, commission, and dedication information, as well as other pertinent details ranging from the names of collaborators to alternate titles under which works may circulate. Composers in the Classroom is an indispensable tool to scholars of modern music seeking to research the current state of musical composition and the compositional trends of the 21st century. 1993 supplement Church Publishing, Inc. This beautiful arrangement exuberantly expresses joy and gratitude to God for His help during the storms of life. Accessible choral writing is scored skillfully above a lively accompaniment that includes optional rhythm parts. From start to finish, the message "O Lord, You make me want to sing"

is articulated in bright jubilation. Low Voice Heritage Music Press This collection of new interviews with twenty-five accomplished female composers substantially advances our knowledge of the work, experiences, compositional approaches, and musical intentions of a diverse group of creative individuals. With personal anecdotes and sometimes surprising intimacy and humor, these wide-ranging conversations represent the diversity of women composing music in the United States from the mid-twentieth century into the twenty-first. The composers work in a variety of genres including classical, jazz, multimedia, or collaborative forms for the stage, film, and video games. Their interviews illuminate questions about the status of women composers in America, the role of women in musical performance and education, the creative process and inspiration, the experiences and qualities that contemporary composers bring to their craft, and balancing creative and personal lives. Candidly sharing their experiences, advice, and views, these vibrant, thoughtful, and creative women open new perspectives on the prospects and possibilities of making music in a changing world.
